MEMORANDUM FOR AAFES MANAGER

FROM: AFFTC/CC

SUBJECT: Policy Change on Civilians Purchasing Gasoline at the AAFES Service Station

1. Effective immediately, the restriction on civilians purchasing no more than 15 gallons of gasoline is rescinded at the AAFES Service Station at Edwards AFB. DoD Civilians may now fill their tank with gasoline regardless of the volume.
2. All other local policies on AAFES privileges for DoD civilians residing off-base remain in effect.
  - a. Civilians may purchase food and snack items, non-alcoholic drink items, magazines, books, newspapers, greeting cards, shoe laces, socks, hose, shoe polish, non-prescription medications, and personal hygiene items to include comb and brush, toothbrush and toothpaste, mouthwash, deodorant, feminine products, hair spray, mousse, shampoo, and soap.
  - b. Civilians may also use the AAFES Service Station for essential vehicle repairs necessary to permit safe operation of their vehicle. This includes replacement and repair of batteries, oil pumps, water pumps, wheel bearings, transmission repairs, radiator repairs, individual tire repairs/replacement, replacement oil by the quart, and fuel.
  - c. Under no circumstances will DoD civilian employees be allowed to purchase tobacco products, alcoholic beverages, clothing items (other than those mentioned above), audio/visual equipment, CDs, computer hardware, software, or printer products, sets of automobile tires, auto filters and components not part of an essential repair performed by the car care center, and auto parts that would be used for home or personal vehicle repairs such as brake pads, hoses, or bearings.
